This is a list of Ranju Hazarika's novels in order by publication date. The list is made up of the author's first, second, third and fourth single-title novels.

First Single Title Novel by Ranju Hazarika "The Corpse In The Forest" (2014) - In September, a high school teacher vanishes from her forested country cabin. But there was no sign of struggle and she hasn't been seen since the night before she disappeared. Also, her beloved golden retriever is still in the house. Soon, the police are looking for a motive. Did she run off to start a new life? Did she meet with foul play? As the investigation unfolds, jealousy and revenge emerge as key motives. But nothing seems to click for investigators. Then they discover an unsettling link between the missing woman, murderer and victim—all have connections to missing persons cases from years past.

Second Single Title Novel by Ranju Hazarika "The Lady's Embalming" (2015) - As Sister Mary Jane heads back to St. Agnes Hospital to prepare the body of her Catholic colleague, Sister Mary Angela for burial, she receives a phone call from Sister Mary Rose. Her boss is missing and she needs Mary Jane's help. As the two women scramble to prepare for the funeral, they come across an array of disturbing facts that seem to connect them with a recent criminal case: a young woman who was kidnapped and murdered 15 years earlier. Can they solve this case and give their friend and colleague peace? Third Single Title Novel by Ranju Hazarika "A Secret Love Letter" (2012) - In this novel, Ranju Hazarika weaves an intelligent and suspenseful tale with a clever revelation at its core. Manohar Chatterjee is an Indian publishing executive who has always found it difficult to make compromises. But when Nagaraja Chatterjee, his brilliant daughter moves back home, Manohar finds himself making several decisions that are against his nature. Nagaraja is an aspiring journalist, and she has been daring enough to put her career ambitions on hold to spend time with her father. She is also somewhat of a taskmaster. Manohar doesn't like that she's dictating his personal life and the way he handles the situation could drive him to making a rash decision – one that could put his family in danger.

Fourth Single Title Novel by Ranju Hazarika "A Passage To Goa" (2015) - A romantic and suspenseful tale about a young woman whose secret love affair changes her life forever. Kamalabai, a housewife from Maharashtra, has been married for over twenty years to a successful government official.
