About This Game

"Just when ragdoll was becoming an irritant for gaming, Toribash swoops in to demonstrate why it's the best thing since shaded pixels." - PC Format

"Great physics; the best PC fighting game since "Rag Doll Kung Fu." - PC Gamer UK

Toribash is an innovative free-to-play online turn-based fighting game where you're able to design your own moves. It is a martial arts simulator (yes, we do call a game with full body dismemberment a simulator) where you move your character by controlling joints on their body. As each of them can have 4 different states, number of possible moves is almost endless, which makes fights unique.

Main features:

- Completely unique fights with players all around the world
- Unlimited character customization: body colors, textures, flames, hairs and more!
- Daily knockout tournaments hosted by the Event Squad

- Lots of ingame and forum events
 - Ability to modify the environment and characters using the built-in Mod Maker
 - Open market - trade any of your items with your friends or just give them for free!
 - An extremely long game genre name

I EAT ASSSSS. A heavily underplayed and underrated game, especially for being one of a kind Turn based (yet real time) combat using a body? Pardon my language but that's freaking sick, yo!

Easy to mess around with at the beginning, the skill floor is reasonable but the skill ceiling is extremely high - so maybe get your friends into it so that you can play for casual quick fun or maybe practice to skill based mindgame level of competition

Replay value extreme - especially since you have replays you can save of every battle
Not to mention mods (which I've yet to try) that look promising indeed

it's FREE TO PLAY so yeah please do grab a friend and pull em into Toribash so you can pull their arm off only to make them slap their own head off

My only con is probably the website - it's ancient, they could do with some optimizing (not that it's really needed to use, that's mostly for customizing I think... but it really would encourage people to buy cosmetics and whatnot). I played toribash long before it came out on steam, this game is pretty in depth and hard to play at first. The learning curve is large but if you can get over that it's a very fun game of pectoral chess. I've played this game quite a lot in the past before it was released to Steam. By no means was I good, especially since the game has a rather large learning curve. This learning curve comes from the fact that various joints must be manipulated to get results, but casual players (especially friends) will often find hilarity due to the manipulation of their characters sometimes in rather awkward positions. Multiplayer games are rather fast-paced compared to singleplayer sessions due to the timer which limits the time players can think before it runs out. Otherwise, various mods come with the game which adds plenty of PvP options (arena type, weapons, body sensitivity, etc.), or solo challenges (parkour, skateboarding, sports, etc.).

In terms of play by more seasoned/veteran players (not including myself), other players can find interest in the rather complicated techniques used to simulate real fights or complete parkour maps.

Overall, this game takes a long time to fully understand since the tutorial does not completely cover everything, but once players get past this, they'll find many challenges to overcome.. punching off heads is fun. A fantastic game, took me a very short time to master, I remember being a yellow rektng brown belts :D: I recommend this game its very fun and only clever people can be succesful in this game, those are the games I like. So if you want a game for clever people, where you win with thinking, not skill or luck here you go :-) peace guys

-36. this game is great and it takes time to learn and lots of fun and a great way to paste time. Learning curve higher than the sun 8V10. this game is cool like ice.

violets are red

roses are blue toribash is good for you. wish it had a single player mode to earn those damned creds for unlocks but then again i would like to be able to make a full move set as a combat style. Awesome! i love how all the joints are movable and the limbs are ripable. -Sees awesome backflips and parkour on store page

-Downloads

-Flops around doing more self damage than to my opponent

-Somehow wins

11V10 would flop around again. I was liek tryin to punch thsi dued and it was liek pakachapoow and i won match. You Really Need To Get Used To It But It's Really Fun!!!
